Teaching Optimism and Resilience to Children: APA Guide

Techniques to Build Resilience

Techniques:

- ✓ Make Connections
- ✓ Accept That Change is A Part of Living
- ✓ Develop Some Realistic Goals
- ✓ Practice Self-compassion
 - Be Mindful
 - Remember that You're Not Alone
 - Be Kind to Yourself
- ✓ Mindful Awareness
- ✓ Cultivate Forgiveness

PRACTICING SELF-COMPASSION

Scientists identified three components of self-compassion, which resonate well with traditional Buddhist teachings, and can serve as a guide to your practice.

SELF-KINDNESS

Express love and acceptance towards yourself!

MINDFULNESS

Use your breaths to become aware of what's going on inside, without judgement.

CONNECTEDNESS

Extend your awareness to all beings, and acknowledge that everyone goes through difficult experiences.

- Reduces stress, anxiety and depression
- Increases well-being
- Helps resilience and conflict management

Good & Bad Lens

The Bad Lens

The Good Lens

Perspective...

Toxic Positivity

TOXIC POSITIVITY

The overgeneralization of a happy, optimistic state leads to minimize and invalidation of authentic human emotions.

Delhi International School Edge hosted an online workshop by Ms. Pratibha Malhotra (Project CACA), emphasizing empathy, communication, and emotional support to raise happy and resilient children.
