EDITOR-IN-CHIEF'S DESK APRIL NEWSLETTER UNVEILED!

Dear Esteemed Readers,

PURNIMA CHAUHAN

As the sun casts its golden rays upon the awakening earth, we are thrilled to present the inaugural edition of our April newsletter at DIS Edge School for the 2024-25 session. It is with great pleasure and a sense of profound responsibility that I extend my warmest greetings to each and every one of you.

In this edition, we celebrate the vibrant life of our school community. You'll find highlights of student activities and achievements, showcasing the incredible talents and dedication of our learners. From academic accolades and sports victories to artistic performances and community service projects, we are proud to share the accomplishments that make our school a beacon of excellence.

But beyond the headlines lies the essence of our newsletter—the voices of our students, teachers, and parents. Here, you will discover perspectives that resonate with wisdom and empathy. Through their contributions, we aim to foster a dialogue that unites us in our shared humanity.

As we embark on this odyssey together, I invite you to immerse yourself fully in the pages that follow. Let us engage, enlighten, and empower one another, for it is through the exchange of ideas that we sow the seeds of change.

On behalf of the entire editorial team, I extend my deepest gratitude for your unwavering support. Together, let us journey towards a future imbued with hope, understanding, and endless possibility.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Dear Students, Parents and Teachers

MAHIMA MITTAL

As the days grow longer and the chill of winter gives way to the budding promise of spring, we find ourselves in the vibrant month of April. This month is often seen as a time of renewal and growth, not just in nature but within our school community as well.

April is a month filled with opportunities. The excitement of upcoming events, the anticipation of exams, and the blooming friendships in our hallways all remind us that each day is a chance to learn, grow, and make meaningful connections. We see our students embracing new challenges, whether it's in the classroom, on the sports field, or through creative projects. Your dedication and enthusiasm are truly inspiring.

As you flip through this edition of our newsletter, you'll discover stories of achievements and perseverance. From International Film Festival to heartwarming community service projects, these moments highlight the spirit of our school.

Parents, your involvement and encouragement are invaluable. Whether you're helping with homework, cheering from the sidelines, or simply being there with a listening ear, your support makes a world of difference.

Let's take a moment to appreciate the journey we are on together. April is not just another month; it's a chapter filled with promise and potential. Let's embrace the opportunities ahead, celebrate our successes, and learn from our experiences.

Wishing everyone a month of growth, joy, and continued success.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

Welcome back to a new school year! I hope you had a refreshing and enjoyable break, filled with rest and exciting activities. As we embark on this new academic journey together, I want to share a few thoughts and reminders to help us all make the most of the upcoming year.

First and foremost, I want to remind you that each new school year brings with it a fresh start and countless opportunities. It's a chance to set new goals, explore new interests and strive for excellence in everything you do. Whether you are continuing your journey with us or are new to our school, know that you are an important part of our community and we are all here to support one another.

As you flip through this edition of our newsletter, you'll discover stories of achievements and perseverance. From International Film Festival to heartwarming community service projects, these moments highlight the spirit of our school.

As we begin this new session, I encourage you to embrace a positive attitude and approach your studies with enthusiasm and determination. Remember, learning is not just about academic success, but also about personal growth. Take the time to discover your passions, challenge yourself, and always be curious.

Let's make this school year one of growth, achievement, and joy. I am excited to see all the amazing things we will accomplish together. Welcome back, and let's have a fantastic year!
